(2) Those matters are—

- (a) the Commissioner; or
- (b) a person for the time being carrying out the functions of the Commissioner.

Application of Part III

Complaints, matters and persons to which Part III applies.

(2) In this Part “conduct matter” means (subject to the following provisions of this section and any regulations made under this Act) any matter which is not and has not been the subject of a complaint but in the case of which there is an indication (whether from the circumstances or otherwise) that a person serving with the police may have—

- (a) committed a criminal offence; or

- (b) behaved in a manner which would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings.

(3) The complaints that are complaints for the purposes of this Part by virtue of subsection (1)(b) do not, except in a case falling within subsection (4), include any made by or on behalf of a person who claims to have been adversely affected as a consequence only of having seen or heard the conduct, or any of the alleged effects of the conduct.

(4) A case falls within this subsection if—

- (a) it was only because the person in question was physically present, or sufficiently nearby, when the conduct took place or the effects occurred that he was able to see or hear the conduct or its effects; or
- (b) the adverse effect is attributable to, or was aggravated by, the fact that the person in relation to whom the conduct took place was already known to the person claiming to have suffered the adverse effect.

(5) For the purposes of this section a person shall be taken to have witnessed conduct if, and only if—

- (a) he acquired his knowledge of that conduct in a manner which would make him a competent witness capable of giving admissible evidence of that conduct in criminal proceedings; or
- (b) he has in his possession or under his control anything which would in any such proceedings constitute admissible evidence of that conduct.

(6) For the purposes of this Part a person falling within subsection 1(a) to (c) shall not be taken to have authorised another person to act on his behalf unless—

- (a) that other person is for the time being designated for the purposes of this Part by the Authority as a person through whom complaints may be made, or he is of a description of persons so designated; or
- (b) the other person has been given, and is able to produce, the written consent to his so acting of the person on whose behalf he acts.

(7) For the purposes of this Part, a person is serving with the Force if—

- (a) he is a member of the Force;
- (b) he is an employee of the Force who is under the direction and control of the Commissioner; or

- (2) It shall also be the duty of the Commissioner—
- (a) to provide the Authority with all such other information and documents specified or described in a notification given by the Authority to the Commissioner; and
 - (b) to produce or deliver up to the Authority all such evidence and other things so specified or described, as appear to the Authority to be required by it for the purposes of the carrying out of any of its functions.

(3) Anything falling to be provided, produced or delivered up by any person in pursuance of a requirement imposed under subsection (2) must be provided, produced or delivered up in such form, in such manner and within such period as may be specified in—

- (a) the notification imposing the requirement; or
- (b) in any subsequent notification given by the Authority to that person for the purposes of this subsection.

(4) Nothing in this section shall require the Commissioner—

- (a) to provide the Authority with any information or document, or to produce or deliver up any other thing, before the earliest time at which it is practicable for the Commissioner to do so; or
- (b) to provide, produce or deliver up anything at all in a case in which it never becomes practicable for the Commissioner to do so.

(5) A requirement imposed by any regulations or notification under this section may authorise or require information or documents to which it relates to be provided to the Authority electronically.

Inspections of police premises on behalf of the Authority.

20.(1) Where—

- (a) the Authority requires the Commissioner to allow a person nominated for the purpose by the Authority to have access to any premises occupied for the purposes of the Force and to documents and other things on those premises; and

- (b) the requirement is imposed for any of the purposes mentioned in subsection (2), it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to secure that the required access is allowed to the nominated person.

(4) Where—

- (a) a requirement imposed under this section for the purposes mentioned in subsection (2)(a) requires access to any premises, document or thing to be allowed to any person, but
- (b) there are reasonable grounds for not allowing that person to have the required access at the time at which he seeks to have it, the obligation to secure that the required access is allowed shall have effect as an obligation to secure that the access is allowed to that person at the earliest practicable time after there cease to be any such grounds as that person may specify.

(5) The provisions of this section are in addition to, and without prejudice to—

- (a) the rights of entry, search and seizure that are or may be conferred on—
 - (i) a person designated for the purposes of any Regulations, or in his capacity as a constable or as a person with the powers and privileges of a constable; or

 - (ii) is for the purposes of the prevention or detection of crime, or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders;
 - (iii) is required on proportionality grounds; or
 - (iv) is otherwise necessary in the public interest.

(5) The non-disclosure of information is required on proportionality grounds if its disclosure would cause, directly or indirectly, an adverse effect which would be disproportionate to the benefits arising from its disclosure.

(6) It shall be the duty of a person appointed to carry out an investigation under this Part to provide the Authority with all such information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of performing its duty under this section.
