Commission Regulation (EU) No 361/2014

of 9 April 2014

laying down detailed rules for the application of Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009 as regards documents for the international carriage of passengers by coach and bus and repealing Commission Regulation (EC) No 2121/98

(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 on common rules for access to the international market for coach and bus services, and amending Regulation (EC) No 561/2006(1), and in particular Article 5(3) and (5), Article 6(4), Article 7(2), Article 12(5) and Article 28(3) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Article 5 of Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009 provides that regular services and certain special regular services are to be subject to authorisation;
- (2) Article 12(1) of that Regulation states that the occasional services defined in Article 2(4) are to be carried out under cover of a control document;
- (3) Article 5(5) of that Regulation lays down that the own-account transport operations defined in Article 2(5) are to be subject to a system of certificates;
- (4) Rules governing the use of the control documents referred to in Article 12 of that Regulation and the means of communicating to the Member States concerned the names of the carriers performing the occasional services and the connection points on route need to be established;
- (5) It is necessary to standardise, for reasons of simplicity, the journey form for international occasional services and for cabotage operations in the form of occasional services;
- (6) The journey form used as a control document in the framework of cabotage operations in the form of special regular services should be filled out in the form of a monthly statement;
- (7) It is necessary to standardise the forms for the communication by the Member States to the Commission of the statistical information related to the number of authorisations for regular services as well as cabotage operations;
- (8) For reasons of transparency and simplicity, all the model documents adopted in Regulation (EC) No 2121/98 of 2 October 1998 laying down detailed rules for the application of Council Regulations (EEC) No 684/92 and (EC) No 12/98 as regards documents for the carriage of passengers by coach and bus(2) should be adapted to Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009 applicable to international coach and bus services;
- (9) Regulation (EC) No 2121/98 should therefore be repealed;
- (10) Member States need time to have the new documents printed and distributed. Therefore in the meantime carriers should be able to continue to use the documents provided for in Regulation (EC) No 2121/98, which should specify that they take account of the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009;
- (11) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Committee on Road Transport.

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

SECTION I

3. In accordance with Article 5 of Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009 the following services are subject to authorisation:

- (a) regular services, services which provide for the carriage of passengers at specified intervals along specified routes, passengers being picked up and set down at predetermined stopping points. Regular services shall be open to all, subject, where appropriate, to compulsory reservation. The regular nature of the service shall not be affected by any adjustment to the service operating conditions;

- (b) special regular services not covered by a contract between the organiser and the carrier. Services, by whomsoever organised, which provide for the carriage of specified categories of passengers to the exclusion of other passengers shall be deemed to be regular services. Such services are called ‘ special regular services ’ and include:

- (a) (i) the carriage of workers between home and work;
(ii) the carriage of school pupils and students to and from the educational institution.

The fact that a special service may be varied according to the needs of users shall not affect its classification as a special regular service.

4. The application shall be made to the competent authority of Gibraltar for the purpose of Regulation (EC) No 1073/2009, namely one of the service termini.

5. The maximum period of validity of the authorisation is five years.
