(3) An inspector or a police officer may (if necessary) use reasonable force in exercising the power conferred by subsection (1), but only if it appears to him that entry is required before a warrant under subsection (4) can be obtained and executed.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a justice of the peace may, on the application of an inspector or police officer issue a warrant authorising an inspector or a police officer to enter premises for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1), if necessary using reasonable force.

(5) The power to issue a warrant under subsection (4) is exercisable only if the justice of the peace is satisfied—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is an animal on the premises and that the animal is suffering or is likely to suffer if its circumstances do not change; and
- (b) that subsection (6) is satisfied in relation to the premises.

(6) This section is satisfied in relation to premises if any of the following four conditions are met–

- (a) that the whole of the premises is used as a private dwelling and the occupier has been informed of the decision to apply for a warrant;
- (b) that any part of the premises is not used as a private dwelling and that each of the following applies to the occupier of the premises–
 - (i) he has been informed of the decision to seek entry to the premises and of the reasons for that decision;
 - (ii) he has failed to allow entry to the premises on being requested to do so by an inspector or a police officer;
 - (iii) he has been informed of the decision to apply for a warrant.
- (c) that–
 - (i) the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is absent; and
 - (ii) notice of intention to apply for a warrant has been left in a conspicuous place on the premises;
- (d) that it is inappropriate to inform the occupier of the decision to apply for a warrant because–
 - (i) it would defeat the object of entering the premises; or
 - (ii) entry is required as a matter of urgency.

Orders in relation to animals taken under section 21A(5).

21C.(1) The magistrates' court may order any of the following in relation to an animal taken into possession under section 21A(5)–

- (c) that the animal be re-homed;
- (d) that the animal be disposed of otherwise than by way of re-homing;
- (e) that the animal be destroyed.

(2) If an animal is taken into possession under section 21A(5) when it is pregnant, the power conferred by subsection (1) shall also be exercisable in relation to any offspring that results from the pregnancy.

(3) The power conferred by subsection (1) shall be exercisable on application by—

- (a) the owner of the animal; or
- (b) any other person appearing to the court to have a sufficient interest in the animal.

(4) A court may not make an order under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) it has given the owner of the animal an opportunity to be heard; or
- (b) it is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with the owner.

(5) Where a court makes an order under subsection (1), it may—

- (a) appoint a person to carry out, or arrange for the carrying out, of the order;
- (b) give directions with respect to the carrying out of the order;
- (c) confer additional powers (including power to enter premises where the animal is being kept) for the purpose of, or in connection with, the carrying out of the order;
- (d) order a person to reimburse the expenses of carrying out the order.

(6) In determining how to exercise its powers under this section, the court shall have regard, amongst other things, to the desirability of protecting the animal's value and avoiding increasing any expenses which a person may be ordered to reimburse.

(7) A person commits an offence if he intentionally obstructs a person in the exercise of any power conferred by virtue of this section.

(8) Where a Court makes an order under section 21C(1), the owner of the animal to which the order relates may appeal against the order to the Supreme Court.
