the remainder of taxable income at the rate of 39 per cent.

(2) In the case of an individual to whom the provisions of section 34(3) apply the amounts of taxable income set out in the above bandings shall be reduced by one-twelfth for each calendar month in the year of assessment during which that individual does not carry on, exercise or undertake any trade, business, profession, vocation or employment in Gibraltar.

Rates of tax charged on certain non-residents.

3.(1) Subject to the exceptions in subrule (2) and subject to rule 3A and rule 8, tax shall be charged on the taxable income of every non-resident individual in accordance with the following bandings—the first £16,000 of taxable income at the rate of 17 per cent;

the remainder of taxable income at the rate of 39 per cent.

- (2) Subrule (1) shall not apply in respect of the following non-resident individuals—
  - (a) those to whom the provisions of rule 24(1) of the Income Tax (Allowances, Deductions and Exemptions) Rules, 1992 apply; or
  - (b) individuals falling within rules made under section 41A, except in so far as those Rules provide for the application of subrule (1) to them.

Rates of tax chargeable on individuals under Gross Income Based System.

3A.(1) Where –

- (a) the assessable income of an individual does not exceed £25,000 in a year of assessment; and
- (b) the individual has made an election on the appropriate form prescribed by the Commissioner to the effect that the provisions of this rule shall apply to that individual, then, subject to the provisions of this rule and rule 8, tax may be charged on the assessable income of that individual in accordance with the following bandings –

- (2) In the case of an individual to whom the provisions of section 34(3) apply the amounts of assessable income set out in the above bandings shall be reduced by one-twelfth for each calendar month in the year of assessment during which that individual does not carry on, exercise or undertake any trade, business, profession, vocation or employment in Gibraltar.
- (3) Where an individual has made an election under subrule (1) and at any time within the year of assessment it appears to the Commissioner to the best of his judgement that—
  - (a) the individual by virtue of his election would be liable to a greater amount in tax under the provisions of the Act for that year of assessment than if that individual had not made such an election, and
  - (b) the individual would instead be liable to a lower amount in tax under the provisions of the Act for that year of assessment if that individual were chargeable under rule 2 of these Rules taking into account any allowances and deductions that may be due to him, the Commissioner shall disregard the individual's election for the purposes of the Act and that individual shall be chargeable under rule 2 of these Rules.

(4) In the case of an individual to whom the provisions of this rule apply, the amounts of assessable income and deemed assessable income specified in this rule shall be reduced by one-twelfth for each calendar month in the year of assessment during which that individual does not carry on, exercise or undertake any trade, business, profession or employment in Gibraltar.
