(4) If the court has ordered under paragraph 9 that the costs of an applicant under that paragraph are to be paid out of the proceeds of sale, the applicant is entitled to payment of those costs out of the proceeds before any person receives any part of the proceeds under this paragraph.

Express trust, corporate or legal entity's power to withdraw a restrictions notice.

11. An express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar that issues a person with a restrictions notice under paragraph 1 must by notice withdraw the restrictions notice if-

(2) The Order may in particular make provision about-

- (c) the effect of withdrawing a restrictions notice on matters that are pending with respect to the relevant interest when the notice is withdrawn

SCHEDULE 2SUPPLEMENTARY INTERPRETATION

(regulation 3)

Introduction.

1. This Schedule sets out rules for interpretation of these Regulations.

Joint interests.

2. If two or more persons each hold a share or right jointly, each of them is treated for the purposes of this Schedule as holding that share or right.

Joint arrangements.

- 3.(1) If shares or rights held by a person and shares or rights held by another person are the subject of a joint arrangement between those persons, each of them is treated for the purposes of this Schedule as holding the combined shares or rights of both of them.

(2) A “joint arrangement” is an arrangement between the holders of share, or rights, that they will exercise all or substantially all the rights conferred by their respective shares, or rights, jointly in a way that is pre-determined by the arrangement.

- (3) “Arrangement” has the meaning given by paragraph 12

Calculating shareholding.

- 4.(1) In relation to an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar that has a share capital, a reference to holding “more than 25% of the shares” in that express trust, corporate or legal entity is to holding shares comprised in the issued share capital of that entity of a nominal value exceeding, in aggregate, 25% of that share capital.

(2) In relation to an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar that does not have a share capital-

- (a) a reference to holding shares in that entity is to holding a right to share in the capital or, as the case may be, profits of that express trust, corporate or legal entity;

- (b) a reference to holding “more than 25% of the shares” in that entity is to holding a right or rights to share in more than 25% of the capital or, as the case may be, profits of that entity.

Voting rights.

5.(1) A reference to the voting rights in an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar is to the rights conferred on shareholders in respect of their shares, or, in the case of an entity not having a share capital, on members, to vote at general meetings of the entity on all or substantially all matters.

(2) In relation to an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar that does not have general meetings at which matters are decided by the exercise of the voting rights-

- (a) a reference to exercising voting rights in the entity is to be read as a reference to exercising rights in relation to the entity that are equivalent to those of a person entitled to exercise voting rights in an express trust, corporate or legal entity;
- (b) a reference to exercising more than 25% of the voting rights in the entity is to be read as a reference to exercising the right under constitution of the entity to block changes to the overall policy of the entity or to the terms of its constitution.

Calculation voting rights.

6. In applying this Schedule, the voting rights in an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar are to be reduced by any rights held by the entity itself.

Rights to appoint or remove members of the board.

7. A reference to the right to appoint or approve a majority of the board of directors of an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar is to the right to appoint or remove directors holding a majority of the voting rights at meetings of the board on all or substantially all matters.

“Board of directors” interpretation.

8. References to a board of directors in the case of an entity that does not have such a board, are to be read as references to the equivalent management body of that entity.

Shares or rights held indirectly.

9.(1) A person holds a share “indirectly” if the person has a majority stake in an express trust, corporate or legal entity incorporated in Gibraltar and that entity-

- (a) holds the share in question; or
- (b) is part of a chain of entities-
 - (i) each of which, other than the last, has a majority stake in the entity immediately below it in the chain; and
 - (ii) the last of which holds that right.

(2) A person holds a right “indirectly” if the person has a majority stake in the entity and that entity-

- (a) holds that right; or
- (b) is part of a chain of entities-
 - (i) each of which, other than the last, has a majority stake in the entity immediately below it in the chain; and
 - (ii) the last of which holds that right.

(3) For these purposes, A has a “majority stake” in B if-

- (a) A holds a majority of the voting rights in B;
- (b) A is a member of B and has the right to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors of B;
- (c) A is a member of B and controls alone, pursuant to an agreement with other shareholders or members, a majority of the voting rights in B; or
- (d) A has the right to exercise, or actually exercises, dominant influence or control over B.

(4) In the application of this paragraph to the right to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors, an entity is to be treated as having the right to appoint a director if-

- (a) a person’s appointment as director follows necessarily from that person’s appointment as director of the entity; or

- (b) the directorship is held by the entity itself.

Shares held by nominees.

10. A share held by a person as nominee for another is to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as held by the other, and not by the nominee.

Rights treated as held by person who controls their exercise.

11.(1) Where a person controls a right, the right is to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as held by that person, and not by the person who in fact holds the right, unless that person also controls it.

(2) A person “controls” a right if, by virtue of any arrangement between that person and others, the right is exercisable only-

- (a) by that person;
- (b) in accordance with that person’s directions or instructions; or
- (c) with that person’s consent or concurrence.

“Arrangement” interpretation.

12.(1) “Arrangement” includes-

- (a) any scheme, agreement or understanding, whether or not it is legally enforceable; and
- (b) any convention, custom or practice of any kind.

(2) But something does not count as an arrangement unless there is at least some degree of stability about it, whether by its nature or term, the time it has been in existence or otherwise.

Rights exercisable only in certain circumstances etc.

13.(1) Rights that are exercisable only in certain circumstances are to be taken into account only-

- (a) when the circumstances have arisen, and for so long as they continue to obtain; or

- (b) when the circumstances are within the control of the person having the rights.
- (2) But rights that are exercisable by an administrator or by creditors while an entity is in relevant insolvency proceedings are not to be taken into account even while the entity is in those proceedings.
- (3) “Relevant insolvency proceedings” means-
 - (a) administration within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 2011; or
 - (b) proceedings under the insolvency law of another country or territory during which an entity’s assets and affairs are subject to the control or supervision of a third party or creditor.
- (4) Rights that are normally exercisable but are temporarily incapable of exercise are to continue to be taken into account.

Rights attached to shares held by way of security.

14. Rights attached to shares held by way of security provided by a person are to be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as held by that person-
- (a) where apart from the right to exercise them for the purpose of preserving the value of the security, or of realising it, the rights are exercisable only in accordance with that person’s instructions; and
 - (b) where the shares are held in connection with the granting of loans as part of normal business activities and apart from the right to exercise them for the purpose of preserving that value of the security, or of realising it, the rights are exercisable only in that person’s interests.
